

The Traffic Control Devices Rule Clause 7.9(3) requires that any vertical deflection device must either:

- < be illuminated; or
- < have reflective delineators; or
- < have reflective signs installed.

Failures of markings on concrete surfaces

As concrete cures, efflorescence occurs.

Efflorescence is the

Contractors have observed that an effective installation of the sacrificial marking may be to install a thin film of thinned marking material. This should be in

